Chattanooga Lookouts Here for Single Game at Russwood Starting at 4 O'Clock. Tribe Takes Double Bill.

BY BOB PIGUE.

If the rainmaker will desist long enough, the Chicks and Chattanooga Lookouts will stage a bail game at Russwood park Thursday afternoon starting at 4 c'clock. In case the two teams get to play, Oscar Tuero, the newest righthanded Chick pitcher, will be started against the Chattanogans. Tuero was to have started Wednesday in the second game of the double bill with Nashville, but after his long ride from Kansas City, decided he would be in better shape after a day's rest. For Chattanooga Bob Vines will do the pitching, Vale Sloan, ex-Chick right fielder, will apear in one of the outer gardens for the Lookouts.

CHICKS TAKE A PAIR.

CHICKS TAKE A PAIR.

The Chicks won both ends of a double-header from the Nashville Volunteers at Russwood park Wednesday The first game went to the Tribe by the score of 6 to 3, while the last on was captured by the count of 10 to 5. In each game the Chicks doubled the score of the Volunteers.

The Tribe went on a batting rampage in both contests, and hit each Nashville pitching offering hard. The Tribe pounded out a total of 20 hits for a total of 32 bases on Molly Meis, Ed Tomlin and Brown, Vol first sacker, who served as a relief pitcher in the fag-end of both contests. Brown looked better than either of the regular pitchers. He is a left-hander.

Dazzy Vance won the first game for the Chicks, 6 to 3. In the first inning with one out. Ballinger hit a home run into the left field bleachers. The Chicks tied the score in the second on McLarry's double, followed by two infield outs and Collenberger's single. In the fifth Vance walked and Frierson followed with a double to the boards that scored the redhead. In the sixth the balloon went up, the Tribe counting four times, and salting the game away.

With one out Carroll walked and McLarry tripled to right, scoring Dixie. The squeeze was put on, Bischoff bunting to the infield and McLarry scoring, with Bischoff beating out his bunt and getting a hit. Blades followed with a triple to right that scored Bischoff. The squeeze was again worked, with Collenberger bunting and Blades crossing the plate as Colly was thrown out at first. To start the seventh First Baseman Brown pitched the rest of the way and was not scored on.

In the ninth, with one out, Vance hit Burke and Wickham forced Burke at second, Dunning then lifted the ball over the right field wall for a homer, scoring Wickham ahead of him. Jonard then ended the game by lofting to Frierson.

Summary: Two-base hits—McLarry, Frierson, Ballinger. Three-base hits—McLarry, Blades. Home runs—Ballinger, Divided How Larry, Blades on blas—Collenberger, Dunning, Sacrifice hit—Collenberger, Dunning, Sacrifice hit—Collenberger, Dunni

SECOND A WALKOVER.

SECOND A WALKOVER.

The second affair found Long Bill Thweatt pitted against Ed Tomlin, another gent of height and breadth. The Vols went out in order in their half of the first, but the Chicks got three. With two out Griffin singled and Carroll followed with a one-bagger that put Griff on third. Carroll took second when the ball was played to third in an effort to catch Griff. Then McLarry slammed the pill over the right field wall for a home run, scoring Pug and Dixie ahead of him.

The Vols tied the count at three each in the third. Brown opened the pot with a single and was forced by Morrow. Tomlin singled to left and Morrow took third. Ellam hit a three bagger to center, the ball hitting Carroll's toe and the Chick center-fielder kicking it to deep right, while Ellam rode home on Ballinger's double to left. Knaupp and Burke were easy infield outs.

WORK TRIPLE STEAL.

The Chicks then worked the triple steal. McLarry was on third, Bischoff on second and Blades on first. McLarry scored, and Bischoff and Blades both advanced a base.

As McLarry slid into the plate, he averely spiked Catcher Morrow, of the Vols, necessitating his retirement from the game. McLarry's spikes cut a deep gash in Morrow's right toe, the blood spurting from the wound as he was led away to obtain medical attention. Jonnard donned the chest protector and mask. It was Morrow's first game as a Volunteer.

away to obtain medical attention. Jonnard donned the chest protector and mask. It was Morrow's first game as a Volunteer.

In the fifth inning the Vols routed Thweatt. Tomlin singled and Ellam did likewise. Ballinger popped to Biades and Knaupp handcuffed Andy High with a terrific drive that filled the bases. Burke was walked, forcing Tomlin over, and Wickham also drew a pass, forcing Ellam across. This was enough for Bill. He walked out, and Pat Albris ascended the hill.

Pat threw one ball to Dunning, who hit a line drive to Carroll, who shot the ball back in a hurry to Albris, who relayed it to Bischoff at the plate in time to nail Knaupp, and complete a double play, ending the inning.

In the sixth for the Chicks they counted four tailies by some long range hitting. Collenberger walked and Albris bunted him to second. Frierson fouled out to Jonnard, High walked and Griffin doubled to the right-field boards, scoring Collenberger and High. Carroll followed with a home run over the right-field wall, scoring Griffin ahead of him. First Baseman Brown then went itno the box to relieve Tomlin, who went to first base, and Mc-Larry lifted to Burke.

In the seventh for Nashville, with two out, Burke tripled, but Wickham fouled out to Bischoff and the game was over.

The stands were thickly settled by fans, who were given the surprise of their lives at seeing the Chicks win two games in one day.

Usually the Tribe wins two games about every other week.

Every one of the Chicks seemed to be there with his head up Wednesday, and the result was very gratifying. In the second inning of the first game Vance dodged a wild pitch by Meis, the ball striking his bat and an easy my into the pitcher's hands resulted.

Everett Scott Runs Record To 601 Games; Cobb Hurt Again

BOSTON, July 15.—Everett Scott ran his string of consecutive games up to 601 yesterday and Boston celebrated by defeating Detroit in both ends of a double-header 6 to 5 and 4 to 0. The first game was won by a rally in the unith inning. Ty Cobb again injured his left leg in that inning and was carried from the field. Pennock was credited with winning both games.

Bischoff dropped a Texas leaguer back of second that scored High. With the bags still pifflicated, Blades hit to Knaupp, who booted the ball, and Carroll counted, with the bags still joaded.

Collenborger thee, hit what appeared to be a Texas leaguer, back of second, but Knaupp went back and made a wonderful catch of the ball with his back to the stands, taking the ball over his shoulder.

MONTREAL, July 18 - Tomms No-ble, of New York, outpointed Georges Papin, French lightweight champion, in a fast ten-round bout here last night. Noble carried the fight to Papin in a majority of the rounds.

With the acquisition of Rube Marshall and Oscar Tuero, two right-handed pitchers who should prove very valuable to the Chicks, the Tribe is expected to take a brace and get back into winning form. The Chicks have long been getting a poor brand of pitching, the result of an overworked staff which was short on account of sere arms and jumpers.

which was short on account of sere arms and jumpers.

But Marshall and Tuero are here and will take their regular turn in the box, and they should be able to give a good account of themselves. Both have pitched good ball in years gone by and are not yet in the hasbeen class by several seasons.

The other pitchers on the staff can now get the proper rest so they can be in form when they go into the box. The staff is now composed of Dazzy Vance, Rube Marshall, Oscar Tuero, Bill Thweatt, Pat Albris, Tiny Goodbred and Clarence Nemitz, a total of seven pitchers, more than the Tribe has had all season.

PAT INELIGIBLE.

Albris has been placed on the ineligi-le list temporarily, as the Tribe is ver the player limit by one man, and obliged to cut down to the proper figure.

Pat was called to his home in Cleveland Wednesday night to attend the bedside of Mrs. Albris, who has recently undergone an operation for appendicitis. He will be away for about a week, and will rejoin the Chicks while they are on the road some time next week in case his better half is sufficiently recovered so that he can get away.

When Pat rejoins the club, Clarence Nemitz, a young left-handed pitcher, will be let out, and will in all likelihood be shipped to Dolly Stark, manager of the Augusta club in the South Atlantic league. Dolly is in need of pitchers, and Nemitz should be a winner down there,

The Chicks are after another infielder, as they need one more man who could be used in an emergency, like an accident to one of the present array of infielders.

When he is secured it will mean that one of the present members of the pitching staff will be let out.

Hub Perdue, Vol pitcher, occupied the guest scat in the press box Wednesday, and white there exhibited a big bump on his leg which was caused in the second inning of the Tuesday game when Ray Blades shot a drive that atruck Hub on the leg.

Hub said he could barely walk, and that he thought he was going to have to get out of the box when it occurred.

Babe Ruth got another homer Wednesday. He is within one of his mark of 29 which he set last season. He was passed three times Wednesday after he had laid the first one pitched to him away over the fence.

NOT A SINGLE BOOT.

A very remarkable feature of the twin victory of the Tribe Wednesday over Nashville was that no errors were chalked up against the Chicks.

Every member of the Tribe fielded faultlessly.

The Atlanta Crackers are steadily pulling up to the front seat in the Dixie bandwagon. They took a double till from Birmingham Wednesday.

VOLS HERE SUNDAY.

Memphis fans will have an oppor-tunity of seeing two hostile teams play each other at Russwood park Sunday. The Chicks will be on the road, and the Nashville Volunteers and Liftle Rock Travelers will play each other here Sunday. The game will be called at 3:30 o'clock. The Travelers and Vois met here last season on one occasion in a Sunday season on one occasion in a Sunda double-header.

The Chicks will return to Memphi Monday and open a series with Little

OLE A CHOPPING BLOCK.

Ole Anderson stands out as the lead-ing chopping block in the heavyweight class right now. Whether Ole is aware class right now. Whether Cie is aware of the fact or not his manager has been a little bit too ambilious—or greedy for his end of the coin. For inside a single week Anderson was battered to a pulp twice. First Bill Brennan, one of the toughest eggs in the heavyweight ranks, beat Anderson down and then put him to sleep in an open-air battle staged to swell the clympic games fund being raised by athletic clubs about the country. A few nights later Anderson, still showing a bruised face and feeling sure in the joints, tackled Gene Tunney, one of the best of younger class of Dempsey's rivais. Tunney dropped Aderson in the third round after giving him an unmerciful beating.

Anderson may be making money but he'll wind up like Eat Nelson if he steps in as fall guy in a low more bouts in rapid succession.

New Bat Proves Lucky For Pug, Polly And Dixie

A brand new bat, presented to Pug Griffin, Chick left fielder, as he came to the plate in the first inning of the first game between Nashville and Memphis Wednesday

Inning of the first game between Nashville and Memphis Wednesday proved to be a lucky one for the Tribe.

The bat, a gift from Sam Lewis, a local haberdasher and a 33d degree baseball fan, was decorated with purple and white ribbon when Jake the bat boy carried it to the plate and presented it to Griff, Pug took it and banged out a single to center with it. Polly McLarry, Chick first baseman, used the bat in the second inning and slammed out a two-bagger. In the third inning Griffin again used the lucky bat and got a single to center. Dixip carroll thought he'd try his luck with the bat in the fourth and he cashed in with a single.

In the sixth Polly McLarry walked up with the new bat and plckled the ball for three bases. This made five hits for the new bat in the first game.

In the second affair Griffin shot a single to center with the new war club in the first inning and Carroll.

That made four hits for the new bat in the second game, and a total of nine for the day. Quite a record for the new mace.

NEW YORK, July 15.—Marty Burke, the "string bean" from "Naw leans," will get a real test when he faces Gene Tunney, the Greenwich village bearcat in Jersey City, July 19, Burke got the match with Tunney by virtue of his 15-round victory over roly-poly Willie Mechan in the Crescent City, July 5, and Eastern boxing fans are eagerly awaiting the coming of the hour when the bell will call these two young gladiators together.

In these days of few good young heavyweight prospects, the efforts of such battlers as Burke, Tunney, Brenian and others to fight their way to the top of the laider are peculiarly interesting. teresting.

The boxing public craves action. What's the use of having a wonderful champion like Jack Dempsey when here's nobody good chough to give him what's the use of taxing a wontre, champion like Jack Dempsey when there's nobody good enough to give him a hot argument over the possession of his crown? This is the question that we often hear when Dempsey's name comes up, and so it is enly natural that rugged youngsters like Burke and Tunney are closely watched.

Burke is very popular in his home town. New Orleans fight fans think he is the slickest looking heavyweight prospect we've had since Dempsey broke into the limelight. Back here in the East, however, Burke is an unknown quantity, but the fistic fans of the Metropolitan district—more than a million of 'em, all told—are willing to take him for what New Orleans fans say he is until somebody comes along and disproves their claims.

Tunney is just the chap to bring out the best there is in Burke. The Greenwich villager, like Burke, has been brought along by easy stages. His most notable achievement was a knockout victory over Al Roberts, the sturdy Staten island battler, who, until he met Tunney, was rated as a future heavyweight contender himself. Tunney is a mixer. He likes action and he can sock. Furthermore, he is fast and clever enough to take good care of himself. And he has the spirit and aggressiveness necessary to keep the other fellow busy. So Burke will have his work cut out when he faces Tunney, and from this angle it appears that if Marty is what New Orleans claims for him the coming battle will be worth going many miles to see.

The "Old Master" is through.

Christy Muthewson, for years the followed the charter is through.

claims for him the coming battle will be worth going many miles to see.

The 'Old Master' is through. Christy Mathewson, for years the idea of New York tans, a player whose name was long a household, word throughout the realm of baseball, has decided to quit the matime for good and all.

The coming of Johnny Evers to the Glants foreshadowed one of two things—the retirement of Matty or the stepning down of McGraw as active manager of the team. And now Matty has made his move.

For some weeks prior to the announcement that he would retire Matty suffered with bronchial trouble, and this hastened his plants to sever relations with the team he helped make so famous and arrange for an extended vacation at take Placid, in the Adirondacks.

The decision of the 'Old Master' was fearned with regret by New York fams, not to mention fans throughout the country, for he is one of baseball's heatiled and most picturesque veterans. Matty has not been active as a player since 1916, yet he will be missed and the best wishes of the fans will follow him wherever he goes.

Private craft, excursion boats and airplanes speeding southward across New York bay found nestling behind the great sand spit two sloops that are the pride of Britain and America—Shamrock IV, challenger, with sleek green sides, and Resolute, defender, dazzling in her coat of white.

Aboard them were Capt, William P. Burton and his crew of British tars, and Capt, Charles Francis Adams II, of Boston, with his Yankee saflormen. White-clad figures gazed aloft, scanning the heavens for clouds that betokened winds favorable or unfavorable.

With the start set for noon from the Ambrose channel light vessel, the rival skippers conversed with their navigators regarding weather and wind conditions which would determine the course to be set them by the race committee. They knew that the rules called for a wind-ward and leeward course of 30 miles, but by the direction of the wind alone would the course be charted.

Both skippers were hopeful of bringing the races to a brisk and decisive close, with three straight victories, but both were prepared to sail five races and to start all over again another day if a race was declared off because the yachts failed to finish within the six hours' limit.
